The chargé d'affaires met with BRYC PVE Leaders, partner NGO and IF team. He was impressed with the development in Fallujah by seeing a city whose people are at peace and expressed his desire to hear more about the peace in the city.

IF Country Manager explained the main objective of the project of reducing violent extremism, its background, main results, and success stories.

The head of the BRYC PVE leaders described the importance of the project and its impact on them personally and professionally, and how it changed their minds and hearts, its impact on youth and people with special needs.

All attendees agreed that focusing on training of PVE Leaders, to build partnerships with community leaders and relevant local institutions would sustain and expand the outcomes of the project.
